

SOCIAL NEWS OF THE DAY.

It is with deep regret that the people of Honolulu are preparing to bid farewell to a kamaaina—Mrs. Ellen Weaver, Mrs. Weaver, who is a sister of General Armstrong, has been active in all the work which has been for the good of the Hawaiian people. For the past eleven years she has been in charge of the Lunalilo Home, and the aged Hawaiians who have been under her care for so many years feel deeply the loss of their "mama" as they call her. Mrs. Weaver is one of the charter members of the Daughters of Hawaii, and has been one of its most prominent members, since the organization of the society in 1903. After many years of active missionary work in Hawaii, Mrs. Weaver has decided that she needs a rest and she plans to leave for Vancouver in the early part of next week. After visiting some friends in that city she will go east to Hampton, Virginia, where she will visit the famous institution founded by her brother, General Armstrong. Mrs. Weaver will then proceed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Morgan Jones, who was known in Honolulu as Mrs. Bodefeld. "Rest is the sweetest of labor," said Plutarch, and Mrs. Weaver's many friends hope that when she has tasted of it, and gathered the full measure of its joy she will return to them.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Juliette Hartwell to Mr. Olat L. Sorenson, is of more than passing moment in Honolulu society, because of the popularity of the young people and the prominence of both families. Miss Hartwell is the daughter of Judge A. S. Hartwell, who was formerly chief justice of the Supreme Court of Hawaii, and who has for years been prominent in affairs military, social, civic and political. Mr. Sorenson is the only son of Mrs. R. S. Sorenson and has lately resigned an important position with the Bishop Estate to accept a better one with the Parker ranch on Hawaii.

Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey entertained at luncheon today for Mrs. Brewer of Oakland. The table decorations were roses, from the hostess' country home "Niniko." Mrs. Lowrey's guests included Mrs. Brewer, Miss H. Brewer, Miss A. Brewer, Miss Knott, Miss Snow, Mrs. Storr, Mrs. Frederick D. Lowrey and Mrs. Sherwood Lowrey.

Miss Bradshaw and Miss Leslie Bradshaw from Duluth, Minnesota, were the guests of honor at a luncheon yesterday given by Mrs. Robbins ble. Covers were laid for Miss Juliette Cooke, Mr. Edmund Melanphy, Miss Bradshaw, Miss Leslie Bradshaw, Miss Elise Miles, Miss Cowles, Miss Hughes, Miss Marian Scott and Miss Clara Kelley.

Mrs. Edward D. Tenney was luncheon hostess yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Northrop Castle, Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. Ranny Scott, Mrs. Gertrude Wilder, Mrs. James Wilder, Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mrs. John Galt, Mrs. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. Helen Noonan and Mrs. Edward D. Tenney.

Mrs. Royal D. Mead and her daughter, Mabelita, have been to the volcano and are now in Kona, but will return to Honolulu by Tuesday's steamer.

Admiral and Mrs. Cowles entertained at dinner last evening for Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case-Deering. The centerpiece for the table was a low mound of tiny red roses. Admiral and Mrs. Cowles' guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case-Deering, Major and Mrs. Timberlake, Major and Mrs. Neville, Captain and Mrs. Banker, Mr. and Mrs. King, Mr. Bostrom and Miss Cowles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ranny Scott entertained at dinner on Thursday evening at their home in Manoa. The centerpiece for the table was a tall-handled gilded basket filled with Killarney roses and maidenhair fern. Hand-painted place cards, Chinese pictures painted on rice paper and mounted on pink ribbon, marked the place of each guest. Covers were laid for General and Mrs. Macomb, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham and Mr. and Mrs. Ranny Scott.

Miss Frances Neville was luncheon hostess today at her home on Kinu street. The table was prettily decorated with pale pink asters. The invited guests were Miss Lucile Hoogs, Miss Florence Denison, Miss Rhoda Ballentyne, Miss Louise Smith, Miss Frances Farrington and Miss Kulu-manu McWayne.

Miss Juliette Cooke was the guest of honor at an informal dinner given on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker Rietow at their home in Kaimuki. A low green bowl filled with white and yellow daisies formed the attractive centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for Miss Juliette Cooke, Mr. Edmund Melanphy,

Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Marshall are entertaining at dinner this evening at their home on Young street. The table will be decorated with a Japanese basket filled with yellow chrysanthemums. Covers will be laid for Dr. and Mrs. Trotter, Dr. and Mrs. McCoy and Dr. and Mrs. Marshall.

Miss Pierce, after a visit to Mrs. W. T. J. Dale of Kahului, has returned to her duties at Saint Andrew's Priory.

Miss Harriet Lucas was hostess last evening at a delightful dancing party in honor of Miss Violet Makee, who is to leave Honolulu on the twenty-third of April. The drawing room of Miss Lucas' home was prettily decorated with drooping branches of the pepper tree and pale lavender asters. Punch and refreshments were served out on the lawn where chairs had been placed for the dancers. The programmes were decorated with hand-painted violets, some of the hostess' artistic work, and were fastened to leis of violets when presented to each of the ladies. The invited guests were Miss Violet Makee, Miss Geraldine Neuman, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Rosie Herbert, Miss Ethel Spaulding, Miss Belle McCorriston, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Helen Achilles, Miss Alice Cornet, Miss Frances Cousins, Miss Alice Cooper, Miss Muriel Howatt, Miss Mary Lucas, Mr. George Fuller, Mr. A. B. Clark Jr., Mr. Dan McCorriston, Mr. Bradford Sumner, Lieutenant Robinson, Mr. Charles Herbert, Mr. Vernon Tenney, Mr. Courtney, Lieutenant Price, Mr. Walter Kendall and Mr. Charles Lucas.

Mrs. George G. Guild was hostess yesterday afternoon at a farewell tea given for Mrs. R. R. Reldford who leaves on Tuesday for a trip to the coast. While at Mrs. Guild's the ladies strung bead leis of Hawaiian seeds and presented them to the guest of honor.

The annual meeting of the Cousins Society was held yesterday in a large tent back of the mission building on King street. The reports of the secretary, treasurer, recorder and memorial fund committee were read and placed on file. Dr. A. B. Clark spoke for some time on the necessity of having a memorial building.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey entertained a number of friends at their home last night with a talk on their trip to Norway.

Forty years ago the grandmothers of the missionaries gave a tea party to their friends and today other grandmothers, their descendants, will give a tea party at the same old missionary home.

The ladies who will be present today to receive and pour tea will be Mrs. W. D. Alexander, Mrs. Annie Dickey, Mrs. Susan Bailey Andrews, Mrs. Ellen Weaver, Mrs. W. R. Castle, Mrs. J. B. Atherton, Mrs. S. M. Damon, Mrs. Anna Cooke, Mrs. O. H. Gulick, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. R. F. Dillingham, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Lucy Winne and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox; and the grandmothers who have prepared papers which will be read are Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. O. H. Gulick, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. Ellen Weaver and Mrs. J. B. Atherton. The Cousins are also planning to give Mrs. Ellen Weaver, who is to leave them next week, an old fashioned "hookupu". From three-thirty until four the grandmothers will receive their guests, and after the rollcall at which only direct descendants of the early missionaries may stand in response to their names, the hostesses will serve tea and refreshments to their guests.

Mrs. A. F. Griffiths and Miss Antonette Foster were hostesses on Thursday for the tea which is given every week for the teachers of Ponahou.

Miss Kamakia Magoon is spending week-end at Kaalawai.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark are entertaining at a dance at the Colonial tonight for Miss Edith Clark and Mr. Gustav Bjorkman.

The dance which Mrs. J. A. Magoon was planning to give for her son John Henry Magoon has been postponed for a few weeks.

Mrs. W. F. J. Dale of Kahului, Maui, is visiting friends in Honolulu.

Among the passengers who arrived here on the Mongolia last Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Colvin and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Moore, the former from Santa Maria, Cal., a heavy property holder of that city, and the latter from San Francisco. These gentlemen are here looking over the field with an eye to embarking in business. They have rented a beautiful cottage on Keeaumoku street, near the experiment station, and have arranged to remain here indefinitely. The parties are delighted with the climate, scenery and outlook.

SOCIAL REVIEW OF THE WEEK.

Dinners.
On Friday evening of last week, Judge and Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard of Waimea, Kauai, entertained at dinner on the occasion of the birthday of Mr. B. D. Baldwin. The table was resplendent with red hibiscus, antique candelabras; while a birthday cake, holding forty-three candles told the age of the guest of honor. Judge and Mrs. Hofgaard's guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, Miss May Woodman, Mr. and Mrs. W. Schultze, Mr. and Mrs. H. Truscott, Mr. Arthur Bonham and Miss Gertrude Hofgaard.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Cropp entertained at dinner at the Moana on Saturday night in honor of Mr. John Hackfeld. The table was decorated with vari-colored statuettes.
